RED
2006 Tempranillo, Epoto, Tierra de Castilla y Leon	£2.95	£4.25	£12.50
Soft, ripe black fruit flavours in this Spanish red. Very similar to Rioja.
2006 Merlot, Casa Rivas		-	£13.25
Mouth filling, savoury Chilean red with a plummy fruitiness and hint of spiciness.
2005 Malbec, Gouguenheim Winery	£3.30	£4.90	£15.25
The Argentinean speciality – powerful and warming with ripe cherry fruitiness.
2004 Shiraz, Juniper Crossing	£4.00	£5.00	£17.25
“Rich, ripe black fruit flavours in this spicy, warming red from a top estate in western Australia”
2004 Les Demoiselles de Falfas, Cotes de Bourg		-	£17.50
Organically produced Claret with soft and generous black fruit flavours.
2006 Pinot Noir, Forrest Estate		-	£18.95
Juicy red fruit flavours and lively acidity in this top New Zealand example of a great grape variety.
2006 Gamay ‘Les Collines’, Domaine de la Bergerie		-	£13.95
Light and juicy example of the Beaujolais grape variety from the Loire Valley. very refreshing.
2005 Rioja Semi Crianza, Alto del Obre		-	£15.95
Classic Rioja and savoury, yet almost sweet, fruitiness and appetising, spicy oak.
VINTAGE
2000 Chateau Musar. Bekaa Valley, Lebanon		-	£29.99
Grape varieties: Cabernet Sauvignon / Carignan / Cinsault / Others 13.5%
A cult offering, based on the Bordeaux grape varieties, with a very ripe fruit character
2006 Fleurie ‘Les Roches du Vivier’, Domaine Berrod		-	£26.95
Top quality example of this popular Beaujolais cru – with the typical juicy Gamay fruit but underlying savoury tannins and a hint of smokiness
2004 Chateauneuf du Pape ‘Telegramme’, Brunier		-	£38.95
The ‘junior’ wine of the renowned Domaine de Vieux Telegraphe, made for drinking younger. Ripe red fruits, a touch of spice, elegant and warming
2006 Nebbiolo d’Alba ‘Mirine’, Paolo Manzone		-	£24.95
A ‘mini’ Barolo at roughly half the price of that great Italian red – but with lots of that wine’s black fruit character and similar savoury tannins and hints of nuts and game
2003 Cabernet Sauvignon, Paul Cluver, Elgin		-	£29.95
Classis Cabernet blackcurrant fruitiness and an almost Claret-like purity of flavor and elegance
